The Prophet Muhammad (Peace be upon him) said the best time for doing good deeds is the first ten days of Dhul Hijja

On the blessed day of Eid-ul-Adha we celebrate by feasting with our families and friends, but many are not that fortunate.

At Al Mustafa Trust we have an extensive network of volunteers ready to make sure that your Qurbani donation reaches the people who really need it. We have already purchased animals sourced from local formers in three regions of the world including Africa, Asia and the Middle East. They are waiting to be sacrificed for the poor.

We ask Allah(swt) to accept your sacrifice, grant you a happy and blessed Eid and allow us to help you make this a special day for our Muslim Communities who are less fortunate.

There are 6 million flood victims in Pakistan and 3.2million drought victims in Somalia waiting for food and the meat of your Qurbani. Last year 20,0000 flood victims in Pakistan received meet from our Qurbani project.
